Instructions to provisionally detained students:

1. Defaulter student must submit the undertaking duly signed by him/her and parent (mentioning the reason for absenteeism) on or before 11th February 2023 to Class Representative (CR) of respective division. The CR's are informed to collect hardcopies of undertaking forms and hand it over to Class Teacher.
2. Defaulter student must report to Head DESH along with parents and Class Teacher of respective division in between 10th to 18th February 2023 during working hours with the undertaking duly signed by him/her and parent (mentioning the reason for absenteeism).
3. In case that the parents are unapproachable to countersign the undertaking, the defaulter students should mail / whatsapp the image of duly filled undertaking form to parents. Parents are expected to sign the print out and resubmit it to ward. Such defaulter students should submit the original undertaking along the printout of undertaking signed by parents to CR by following the time deadline.
4. All academic assessments for all defaulter students not submitting the undertaking will be withheld for all the subjects in which they are provisionally detained.
5. All defaulter students are hereby encouraged to improve on their attendance for the subjects in which they are provisionally detained.
